FINE HAND-MADE

HAVANA CIGARS

Kepler's Wabash, St. L. and P. No. 1.
Kepler's Wabash, St. L. and P. No. 2.
Kepler's Wabash, St. L. and P. No. 3.
Kepler's Wabash, St. L. and P. No. 4.

SEEK NO FURTHER FOR FINE CIGARS.

KEPLER'S GREAT WABASH LINE OF FINE HAND-MADE HAVANAS is the production we place before the smoking public, and we guarantee these cigars to be just what we say they are; and we boldly say that at their prices they have no superiors in the market, nor do we intend they shall have. The W., St. L. & P. No. 1 is a large 5-inch hand-made Havana, made by experts, of the best Havana we have been able to find in the market. No 2 is a very fine hand-made 4½ inch Havana, and as a ten-cent or three for 25 cent cigar No. 2 has no superior. No 3 is the purest Havana hand-made 5 cent cigar that we or any one else can produce for the price, and we guarantee No. 3 equal in merit to two-thirds of the 10-cent cigars in the market. We challenge any expert to cut to pieces No. 3 and examine himself as to the truth of what we have said. No. 4 is a fine 5 cent or 6 for 25 cent cigar, and contains more fine stock than nine tenths of the cigars intended to be retailed at 5 cents straight. Fine cigars are better, richer, and more fragrant in smoke when fresh, than when old and dried out. We use no cheap, worthless flavoring extracts in our cigars, but we depend alone for their merit upon the fine stock of which they are made and the workmanship of expert cigar makers. We respectfully solicit a trial. Every cigar warranted a perfect smoker.

PUT HIM ON FILE.

A Wonderful Weapon that Astonished a Ruffian.

"Deadwood," said the stranger, putting down his half-eaten slice of lemon pie and taking a long pull at the milk, "I went there when the first rush was made for the hills. Rather a tough crowd the first lot, you bet; more wholesome now. When I got there I was dead-broke—didn't have a dollar, didn't have a revolver, which a man 'll often need out there worse 'n a meal's vittles. I was prob'ly the only man in the hills who didn't carry a firearm, and I was some lonesome, I tell you. The only weapon I hed—I'm a blacksmith—was a rasp, a heavy file, you know, 'bout eighteen inches long, which I carried down my back, the handle in easy reach just below my coat collar. Understand? Like the Arkansaw man carries his bowie knife. I'm not exactly a temperance man. I just don't drink an' don't meddle with ary other man's drinkin'—that's all. One day—I hedn't been in Deadwood more'n a week—I was sittin' in a s'loon—only place a man kin set to see any society—when a feller come in, a reg'lar bustler, with his can full and a quart over. Hed a revolver on each side of his belt an' looked vicious. Nothin' mean about him though. Askt me to drink. 'Not any, thank you,' sez I. 'Not drink with me! Me! Bill Feathergill! When I ask a tenderfoot to drink I expect him to prance right up an' no monkeyin'! You h-e-a-r-e me!'

"Well, when his hand went down for his revolver, I whipped out my old file qicke'n fire 'ud scorch a feather an' swiped him one right acrost the face.—When he fell I thought I'd killed him, an' the s'loon fillin' up with bummers I sorter skinned out, not knowin' what might happen. Purty soon a chap in a red shirt came up to me. Sez he, 'You the man as ke-arved Bill Feathergill? 'Cos, ef so be as you are, ef you don't want every man in the hills to climb you, don't you try to hide yourself—the boys is askin' fur you now.'"

It struck me that my friend had the idee, so I waltzed back and went up and down before the s'loon for nigh three hours. I'd found out Bill wasn't dead, an' wos bad medicine, but it wouldn't do to let down. Purty soon I see my man a headin' for me. His face had been patched up until it looked like the closing out display of a retail dry goods.—There was so little countenance exposed that I couldn't guess what he was a aimin' at, so I brought my hand back of my collar an' grabbed my file.

"Hold on there, there; hold on,' sez he, 'gimme y'r hand, I'm friendly, I've got nothin' agin you, not a thing, but—you'll pardon me curiosity—what sort of a d—d weepon was that, stranger?'"

The Daily Republican.

E. K. HAMSHER, | J. R. MOSSER.

HAMSHER & MOSSER PUBLISHERS.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 5, 1880.

Publishers of country weeklies throughout Iowa have very generally restored their rates of subscription to [illegible]. The rise in the price of paper compelled them to do so.

The Danville News says: "We would like to say to our readers that among all the able candidates for governor there is not an abler, a more honest or worthy man than General [illegible]. As plain as a Quaker farmer, he is wise and able in statesmanship. We shouldn't wonder if he is the man who will lead our state ticket; if so he will be a tower of strength.

FLORIDA.

Senator Jones, of Florida, who is a Democrat, said in a conversation with a correspondent yesterday, that it was his opinion that the Republican State ticket would be elected in the fall election, but that the Legislature would be Democratic. He said that there was no doubt that the delegates from Florida to the Chicago convention would be instructed for Gen. Grant, and that in the event of his nomination he would be able to carry the State by a satisfactory majority.

FOR J. G. CANNON.

The Homer Enterprise comes out squarely for Mr. Cannon and says:

The papers throughout the district are discussing the question as to who shall be our next Congressman. A number of prominent gentlemen have been mentioned in this connection, but no one has been suggested who, it is thought, could make a stronger fight than the present incumbent—Mr. Cannon. We are for the Republican who can carry the largest vote and influence; the man who can defeat the enemy and achieve the grandest victory. All personal feelings should be buried, and every true Republican should work for the common cause of the party. We have conscientiously looked the ground over and have come to the conclusion that Hon. J. G. Cannon is not only the strongest man in the field, but the one who is most certain to be elected.

Anybody But Cannon.

Rantoulian.

How much in earnest the democrats are about the place of Hon. J. G. Cannon. They all have recommendations to make for some one to fill the place and will agree with you on any man in a York minute if it is not Joe Cannon.

A few days ago, as stated by the Inter-Ocean, Mr. George C. Eisenmayer, a prominent German of St. Clair county in this State, wrote to a friend in Chicago about the presidential nomination as follows: "I am in favor of instructing for Grant for the following reasons: First, the rebels fear him; second, the negroes revere him; third, Republicans trust and have faith in him, and honest Democrats respect him; fourth, he is the best and most favorably known man on this universal globe, and last, but not least, we can elect him and securely seat him."

The American Union Telegraph Company has obtained control of 6,000 miles of wire along the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and extending to points in Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, heretofore operated nominally by the Atlantic and Pacific in 1876 and 1877, and the controversy as to them is thus transferred to the courts, but as to the others, the right of the Baltimore and Ohio to do with them as it has done cannot be questioned. The west end of the six through wires between Washington, Baltimore and Chicago, are now in the American Union office in Chicago. Thus the Western Union has lost control of about 800 small offices. Its business with such cities as Columbus, Ohio, and Wheeling, W. Va., etc., is not interfered with, as it can reach those places on other lines. The American Union has now forty wires running into Chicago from different points. They are fitting up extensive offices in the Merchant's building, and expect to be able to commence business in about two weeks.

A Word to War Democrats.

Macomb Journal.

You are a democrat, and perhaps was a soldier in the Union army, or, if not, you was for the union all through the dark days of the war. Now, don't be frightened; we are not going to wave the bloody shirt nor seek to stir up old strifes and animosities, but only want to ask whether or no you would be glad to see the United States government controlled by the men who fought on the side of the rebellion, led by Bob Toombs, who sent flashing over the wires from Atlanta to Chicago the following: "Present my congratulations to General Grant on his safe arrival to his country; he fought honorably for his country and won; I fought for mine and lost. I am ready to try it over again. Death to the Union." Now say, you union loving democrat, can you put your hand upon your heart and say that you want that old democratic party, in which Toombs is a bright and shining light, again restored to national power in this free land of ours? If you cannot, why not come out boldly, say so, and quit training under such a leadership.

"GENTS."

Mr. Richard Grant White wittily remarks that "gents" and "pants belong" together, for the former always wear the latter. If "gents" is to be tolerated by careful writers, then let us accept "pants" for "trousers," "transpire" for "happen" or "occur," and, in brief, adopt all the variegated and wonderful vocabulary of the average newspaper. The word "gent," however, does describe a class. When you see a greasy young fellow, who seems a cross between a rustic and a negro minstrel off duty—a person with cap set far back on his closely-cropped head, tight trousers that grow suddenly full at the ankle, and shoes with turned up, pointed tips (where does he get those shoes?)—when you see this vulgar little object, you see a "gent." You will encounter him on street corners in shabby neighborhoods, gazing admiringly at the lithograph of some famous clog dancer or cheap blonde in a drinking-shop window; you will meet him there, but Heaven preserve you from ever meeting him in decent literature!—March Atlantic.

How Blaine Likes Hayes.

The Republic.

During the recent row in Maine a New York reporter, who was in Augusta asked Senator Blaine what he thought of President Hayes. "That reminds me of a little story," said the Senator, plagiarizing President Lincoln. "A party went up to Moosehead Lake to camp out. The agreement was that some man should do the cooking till some one complained, and then the man who grumbled should try his hand at it. The cooking was frightful, but not one of the party—with the penalty hanging in terrorem over their heads—dared say a word. Finally things came to such a pass that each man tried to inveigle his neighbor into freeing his mind. One day one of the party saw his friend writhing in silent agony over a piece of alleged pie.

"'What do you think of that pie, anyhow?' he asked.

"'It is the dash dashedest pie I ever wrestled with in my life—but,' catching the gleam in the other fellow's eye, 'I like it—oh, yes, I like it.'"

Pure Nonsense.

E. D. Mansfield, in Cincinnati Gazette.

Some anti-Grant scratchers say there are 60,000 Germans in New York who will not vote for Grant. This is pure nonsense. In the first place, there are only 60,000 German voters of all sorts in New York, and, secondly, half of these are democrats now, and voted for Tilden: and lastly, some of the leading Germans have come out for Grant. All this sort of talk is nonsense. If ever the battle is between Grant and Tilden, the wiseacres will find out where the vote will be. Ohio will give double the majority it did for Foster, and New York will be carried with a sweep.

There is likely to be a lively contest over the two-thirds rule in the democratic national convention, and the result may have a great influence on the nominations. This rule has been the law of democratic national conventions since they superseded the congressional caucus, or in other words, since national conventions began to be held. Several attempts have been made to break it down, but without success. The practical effect of the rule has generally been to make it very difficult for any prominent candidate to obtain a nomination, and to secure the nomination of second and third-rate men brought out at the last moment as "dark horses." The St. Louis convention of 1876 submitted to its successor the question of deciding whether the rule should be abrogated or not, and the democratic call contains a request that delegates to Cincinnati be instructed on the question. It is understood that Mr. Tilden desires the abrogation of the two-thirds rule, believing that with that out of the way he can easily capture the nomination. The preliminary fight on this question will be interesting.

SHERMAN'S LAST MOVE.

Logan's Speech on Porter.

THE POMEROY GREENBACKERS.

Home and Foreign News

Columbus, March 4.—A letter received here this morning, from a prominent politician, whose statements are the most reliable, exposes Secretary Sherman's last move as follows:

"There is a movement on foot on the part of the Sherman people to capture Grant's friends. The movement is to get Sherman the Ohio delegation, with the understanding that after the first ballot or so it is to go for Grant. This would be all very nice, indeed, if Grant alone were to be benefited by it, but as it is intended to make Sherman appear stout in Ohio and to give him the credit of having carried the State as well as some capital to make a dicker with to help him with the next Administration, I am decidedly opposed to it. My information is reliable. The notion originates in Washington."

Washington, D. C., March 4.—Senator Logan was greeted with another fine audience when he resumed his speech on the Fitz John Porter case, to day. He addressed his remarks to the facts connected with Porter's refusals to obey Pope's orders, and said it was plain he did not intend to fight. He compared Porter's action in calling a council of war with that of General Grant at Vicksburg, in ordering an assault after a council of war had decided that it would not do to fight. The allusion to Grant was received with applause by the occupants of the galleries Mr. Logan spoke with much fire, and held the close attention of the Senate.

Washington, D. C., March 4.—Your correspondent asked William E. Chandler, Senator Blaine's trusted friend, to-day, upon what he based his claim that Blaine would receive the Republican nomination at Chicago. Mr. Chandler answered: "Upon the vote of the Illinois delegation, which we feel certain will be cast for Blaine and not for Grant. The advices we get from Illinois are that Grant is not as popular as his friends claim, and that General Logan and Mr. Washburne will not be able to influence the delegation to cast its vote for Grant. Without the vote of Illinois Grant will not be nominated. But with the vote of the State cast for Blaine, the latter will be certain to get the nomination."

There is talk now of a combination of some members of the House who want a sugar bill passed, to force Mr. Wood to favor a reconsideration of the action of the Ways and Means Committee on the sugar question under a threat of voting against his refunding bills. Unless the committee will allow a bill to be reported to the House changing the present law determining the duty on sugars, a strong fight will be made on the refunding bill, and it will be antagonized at every point. Speaker Randall is said to be using all his influence to prevent action on any tariff bill this session.

On account of the large number of rapes committed here without the guilty persons being punished, a bill was introduced into the Senate to-day making the perpetration of rape a death penalty. It has been as much as the police could do during the past week to prevent an organized force of citizens taking from jail the negro prisoners guilty of rape and hanging them to a lamp-post. The feeling among the citizens on the subject here is running high.

St. Louis, March 4.—The National Union Greenback Labor Convention met in the Masonic Hall at noon, and was called to order by Hugo Pryor, of Ohio, Secretary of the National Executive Committee. Twenty states were represented by about 250 delegates. Lafayette Chisley, of New Hampshire, was made temporary chairman. The committee on credentials was appointed and the convention took a recess until 2 o'clock p. m.

Ottumwa, Iowa, March 4.—The result of the municipal election held here is the most decided Republican victory ever achieved in our history. The republican majority ranges from 179 to 426 on the general ticket. The democrats elected but one trustee, and that was in the first ward, where there has been usually over 100 democratic majority.

Shawneetown, Ill., March 4.—The people of Caseyville were startled this morning by the announcement that three of their best citizens and one colored man had been drowned from a skiff near the wharfboat, while attempting to land. The circumstances, as near as they can be gathered, are as follows: Marsh Dyer, William Wolfe and W. E. Ames, accompanied by two colored men, one named Price Metcalf and the other not known here, started from Caseyville, Ky., fifteen miles below here, in a skiff, for this place, partly for pleasure. They arrived here safely about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Marsh Dyer went to the bank and drew $400, which he had in his possession when drowned. The party had a social evening with their friends here, patronizing the saloons perhaps more freely than they should have, considering they were of the best and most respectable families of Caseyville. They boarded the Idlewild at midnight, taking their skiffs along with them. When they arrived at Wolf's farm, about six miles from Caseyville, they got off the Idlewild and attended to some business there, after which they got in the skiff and started for Caseyville. It proved to be a ride to a watery grave. One of the colored men was pulling the skiff, and in attempting to round into the wharfboat at Caseyville, it was capsized and all were drowned except one colored man, who escaped by swimming ashore. Ames leaves a wife and one child. Marsh Dyer and William Wolfe were single men. None of them were over thirty or thirty-five years. They were all good farmers and held in high esteem by those who knew them. Mr. Wolfe's body has been recovered and an inquest is being held. There are no traces of the others.

Leavenworth, Kas., March 4.—Douglas, the Ute chief, who is confined as a prisoner at Fort Leavenworth awaiting trial, made a bold dash for liberty this afternoon. It being generally supposed that he would have no inducement to try to run away, he has not been as closely guarded as other prisoners, and has been permitted to make himself as comfortable as the circumstances of the case would permit, but about 3 o'clock this afternoon, while the guard was being changed, he saw the way clear and made a rush for the door. Passing the guard and jumping the fence, in a moment he was entirely outside of the prison enclosure. He started for the cemetery, a wooded spot at the foot of the bluffs, nearly a mile distant, and ran as though his life depended on it. The guards immediately gave chase, but none of them were a match for him in pedestrianism and soon discovered that if it was to be a question of legs Douglas would go free. They then resorted to their guns, and several shots were fired after him, none of which took effect, but the firing attracted the attention of a soldier in the vicinity on horseback, who gave chase and soon overtook the flying chief, when a very lively tussle ensued between the Indian and the soldier, till the guards came up and secured their prisoner. Douglas has a constant fear of being hung. As he was being brought here from the west whenever the train stopped at a station he thought the crowd on the platform intended to take him out and hang him.

Bismarck, D. T., March 4.—The train coming West with the mail is now at Alsop, eight miles east. No mail has been received in this city since February 9. Numerous complaints have been sent to Washington, and also to General Manager Sargent, of the Union Pacific. Business men have lost thousands by the stagnation of business, consequent on this delay of mails through bad management. Yesterday packers telegraphed requesting Sargent to send the mails through by wagon, which would cost but $25. To this dispatch Sargent telegraphed the company would stand half the expense. This move causes severe criticism.

Chicago, March 4.—After a retirement of nearly one year and a half in the county jail under a charge of murder, Eddie Boyle, who was when preying upon the public, one of the worst thugs in Chicago, was arraigned before Judge Jameson, in the Criminal Court, to day when he pleaded guilty to manslaughter, and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. The unexpected lightness of his sentence has called out considerable criticism and drawn fresh attention to his crime, which has been so buried under the many similar atrocious affairs since occurring, as to be lost sight of.

London, March 4.—A St. Petersburg dispatch says: Madetsky, after judgment was pronounced against him, stated that he was arrested at St. Petersburg in 1869, and deported to Insk, but escaped. When he heard his party was preparing a revolution for the 2d of March, he resolved to go to St. Petersburg. Having heard of Gen. Melikoff's appointment, the revolutionists ordered that nothing be done on the 2d of March, but the postponement of the revolution prevented him from getting money, he resolved to kill Melikoff.

Champaign, Ill., March 4.—The six military members of the Senior Class who were expelled from the State University here, have been restored to the University, and to-day resumed their studies. They made suitable acknowledgments, all that the faculty ever asked of them, and satisfactory pledges were given for the future.

St. Petersburg, March 4.—The man who fired upon Gen. Melikoff yesterday is a converted Jew named Madetsky. He has been tried and sentenced to-day, and will be hanged tomorrow. Madetsky said at his trial that Gen. Melikoff would be killed by some of his comrades; that, although his own attempt had failed, a second, and, if necessary, a third attempt would be made.

SWORN EVIDENCE.

The following Cure is probably the most remarkable ever effected by any medical preparation for the treatment of Catarrh:

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep, hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed gradually to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils, so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my senses of seeing and of hearing were completely restored, and every symptom of disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.

I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practised by the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following their use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.

W. C. T. U. Festival.

At our regular meeting this week we voted to hold a festival at the tabernacle on the evening of Thursday, March 11th. You are all invited, even though you may have voted for license. Per order.

IT appears from the following special telegram from Lincoln to the Chicago Times of the 4th inst., that the whiskey mayor of Lincoln has donned the blue and taken a decided stand for temperance. He was elected to the office he now holds in April, 1879, by the license voters of the town in which he lives :—

LINCOLN, March 3.—At the temperance meeting last night, addressed by Hon. Geo. W. Bain, considerable enthusiasm was created when Jas. E. Hill, our license mayor, went forward, donned the blue ribbon, and made a speech in advocacy of the temperance cause. It is the talk of the town to-day, and his license friends have been calling upon him since early morning. Hill is very popular with the Germans, especially, and they, as are many of his friends, are at a loss to account for the action he has taken in this matter.

Mr. Hill is known to many of our people, and will be remembered by the public generally, as having appeared as "Col. George Sinclair" in the military drama entitled, "North and South," presented at the opera house by the Decatur Grenadiers, during the second week of March, 1879.

UNQUESTIONABLY the funniest hit of the season was the presentation of the hilarious three-act play and a telephone, entitled "Our German Senator," by Gus Williams, the American star comedian and party, at the opera house last night. Despite the threatening weather there was a fair audience present, and all enjoyed the entertainment hugely. The reader is familiar with the plot of the play, having read the same in these columns, and we can truthfully state to those who were absent last night that they missed a big treat, such as is seldom offered lovers of amusements. Gus Williams in his great specialties, introducing the latest songs, his famous temperance speech, closing with the affecting recitation, "Somebody's Mother," was simply unapproachable in tone and gesture, and richly deserved the unbounded applause he received. Manager John Rickaby made a ten-strike when he started out with the Gus Williams party, and he may be certain of receiving a crowded house in Decatur should he visit us again.

WE call the special attention of our readers to-day to the advertisement of S. T. Keeler, the East Main street hatter, and dealer in men's furnishing goods generally, to be found in another column. Mr. Keeler has been in the trade in Decatur since 1871, and by fair dealing and strict attention to his business commands a large share of the public patronage. His goods are always in style, and of the very best quality, while his prices are down to bed-rock at all times. Give him a call.—New spring goods arriving daily.

ORLANDO POWERS has leased Dr. J. N. Bills sufficient ground, 30 feet south of the court house on South Water street, on which he will proceed to erect his block of store buildings removed from East Main street. The block will have a front of 45 feet on Water street, and will extend east 25 feet. Who will occupy the three rooms and the upper story is yet unknown, but they will not long remain tenantless, as the location is suitable for several branches of business that might be named.

IT costs about $83.50 to hold a city election in Decatur. On Tuesday there were 25 judges and clerks employed, and each got $3 for his day's work. Six special policemen—Wm. Conard, Jacob Walters, Josiah Abbott, D. J. Block, A. B. Hanks, and W. A. Carr—were employed, and they will receive $1.75 each for their services.

AT the regular monthly meeting of Rescue Hose Co. No. 1, held last night at firemen's headquarters, a fine large cocoanut cake was presented to the boys with the compliments of Mrs. James H. O'Neill, whose husband, the enterprising plumber, is a valued member of that company.

A New Deal.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN.—Now that we are to have a new council—a license council—the writer being one who voted the license ticket, and knowing that a large majority would like to have a license council and entirely new and strictly temperance policemen, would it not be well for the new Mayor and new council to so far gratify the wishes of the people as to give us an entire new deal in the police force? ## COMING ENTERTAINMENTS.

Below we name the amusement programme for the next five days:

"ALVIN JOSLIN" TO-NIGHT.

This eccentric individual, supported by Miss Emma Vern and a powerful dramatic company, will appear at the opera house to-night, and all lovers of the richest fun should be present. Says the Boston Post:

Mr. Chas. L. Davis began a week's engagement at this house last evening in his four-act comedy "Alvin Joslin," after an absence from this city of more than a year, during which time the play has been entirely rewritten. Dr. Davis assumed the character of Alvin Joslin, an old-time New England farmer, an impersonation well suited to his talents, in which he has few equals. His dialect and make-up are perfect, and one can well imagine himself in the backwoods listening to the yarns of an old farmer. His mishaps and adventures are replete with fun, and they certainly please an audience hugely.

General admission, 50 and 35 cents.—Reserved seats 75c, at Curtis & Ewing's.

THE VARNEY'S

In their many specialties at the tabernacle, on Monday evening, March 8th, is the next entertainment in order, and of course all the seats will be taken. Said the Cincinnati Times:

There was one hit during the evening that was way above the average success on such occasions, which was that of Mr. and Mrs. Varney in "The Bashful Lover." Both were good. Mr. Varney's "Yankee" was a finely drawn character not in the least overdone, but truthful to nature.—Mrs. Varney's work was artistically perfect. It was a gem in its way, as finished and as natural as Joe Jefferson's "Rip Van Winkle," and though at the end of the long programme held the unusually intelligent audience in close attention and called out its enthusiastic applause. We have seen no such delightful little bit for seasons.

Admission, 25 cents; children under 15 years, 15 cents. Front seats can be secured at Curtis & Ewing's.

C. C. C. PINAFORE CO.

The great musical event of this or any other season, will be the only genuine presentation of the popular opera H. M. S. Pinafore, at the opera house, Tuesday evening, March 9th, by J. H. Haverley's great Chicago Church Choir Opera Company and excelsior orchestra. This company needs no recommendation, but read the following from the Louisville Courier-Journal, and go:

The most notable attraction of the season was J. H. Haverley's Chicago Church Choir Co. Large audiences heard it during the week, the house being full even on Saturday night—a rare thing in this theatre. To say that the company has completely won the public, is in no way an exaggertaion. The finest troupe in Louisville that has at all done justice to the sparkling and contagious music of Pinafore. It has made it possible to understand and indorse the remarkable popularity of the opera. We regret that the company cannot stay with us another week. They go from here to Nashville, and we can conscientiously and cordially commend them to that city and accept its thanks in advance.

There was a big take of seats at Curtis & Ewing's this morning. Reserved seats, $1.00; general admission, 75 and 50 cents.

Brilliant Wedding and Double Reception.

MARRIED—Feb. 26, 1880, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. Huston, by Rev. A. Gregory, of Shelby county, MR. MARION MAJOR and MISS MATTIE HUSTON, both of Macon county.

The ceremony was witnessed by a goodly number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride appeared in a lovely plum-colored cashmere and velvet, and the groom in the conventional black suit. The bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Rife, and groomsman, Mr. Martin Moore, both wore costumes suitable for the occasion. After the ceremony all partook of a bountiful supper, which had been prepared by the deft hands of the bride's mother and sister Jennie, to which I dare say all did ample justice. Then congratulations were exchanged, all wishing them a happy life. The parties took their departure for their several places of abode about half past 10 o'clock.

The double reception on Feb. 27, which was given by Mr. Joseph Major, in honor of his son, John, who was married Feb. 12, 1880, to a Miss Carr, from Iowa, and Marion and Mattie. The guests began to gather as early as 10 o'clock, a. m., and all, old and young, seemed to enjoy themselves playing croquet until dinner was announced. "And such a dinner!" It was complete in all its details, and all seemed to enjoy it hugely.

Now, girls, Mr. Major has but one boy left, and as this is leap year, do your best, if you want a grand infair dinner.

MACON COUNTY COURT.

February Term, 1880, Judge S. F. Greer Presiding.

FRIDAY, MARCH 5.

Court convened at 8:30 a. m.

CRIMINAL DOCKET.

The evidence and arguments in the "Leadville" whisky case of the People vs Peter Sells and Owen Rooney, were submitted to the jury on yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the jury retired to make up a verdict. The jury was out all night deliberating, and this morning, at the opening of court, returned a verdict of guilty on the first 27 counts against each of the defendants, and not guilty as to the other counts,—51 in number. The attorneys for Peter Sells entered a motion for a new trial, and both prisoners were recommitted to the county jail.

COMMON LAW DOCKET.

John R Dunlap vs. Daniel N. Dunlap; assumpsit; trial by jury, with State's Attorney Buckingham as attorney for plaintiff, and Thornton, Eldridge & Hostetler for the defendant. John R Dunlap, the plaintiff in this case, is a resident of Sangamon county. In 1868 he sold to his nephew, Daniel N. Dunlap, the defendant, who is a resident of this county, a fine blooded stallion named "Black Hawk," for $300, which amount it appears has not yet been paid. The uncle is attempting to get a judgment for the $300, and the nephew is attempting to prove that the stallion was and is not a good foal getter, as was represented.

Death of the Pippin King.

New York Cor. Troy Times.

Robert L. Pell, of apple fame, is among the recent deaths. He was the most successful man in this specialty in the world, and his fruit was not only known in the British market, but also in the Orient. As a gentleman farmer he had few equals in America, since he made his elegant rural life highly profitable. He had an immense orchard on the banks of the Hudson, whose product was entirely limited to pippins. The fruit was carefully picked, the inferior quality being culled out for cider. The remainder was then placed in a sweating house, where the moisture was evaporated, after which it was packed in boxes of an exact size and sent to a foreign market. Pell found the fruit business the best kind of agriculture, and it made him immensely rich. He owned a fine house in 5th avenue, which he made his winter home, and it was at this place he died. In early life Pell traveled extensively, and not only made the tour of Europe but reached the Orient, including a visit to the Troad. This in those days was a remarkable distance, and he carefully improved the opportunity. He was a very agreeable man in conversation, and as a combination of elegant manners and agricultural success he had few equals. The famous pippins have carried his name to a wide range of foreign parts, and if their culture be properly maintained it will be a fortune to his heirs. Pell informed the writer that this immense orchard, numbering 20,000 trees, was all derived from a couple of trees which his grandfather brought from the town of Newtown, L. I., whence we now have the term "Newtown pippins." The family had devoted itself to this specialty, which made them rich. No wonder, indeed, when Pell's pippins retailed at nine cents apiece in foreign markets.

Rev. Geo. H. Thayer, of Bourbon, Ind., known to every one in that vicinity as a most influential citizen and Christian minister of the M. E. Church, says: "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Drs. Matchett & France, physicians and druggists of the same place, say: "It is having a tremendous sale, and is giving perfect satisfaction such as nothing else has done. For Lame Back, Side or Chest, don't fail to use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. We recommend these remedies." Sold by Dr. A. J. Stoner.

"THE GREAT BOOM."

Eighteen hundred and seventy-nine will long be remembered as the time when all kinds of business and financial prosperity seemed to spring into new life. Merchants are finding plenty of ready customers for their wares, mechanics meet with ready employment at fair wages, and the farmers are receiving advanced prices for their products, and it is acknowledged by all that in no part of our country are the evidences of prosperity and comfort so marked as along the entire line of the "Old Reliable" Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad. And to attain these results the management of the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad have given their careful thought and attention, and the rapid growth of business, and increasing wealth of the community along the whole line are evidences that their efforts are fully appreciated. We are, as usual, running in connection with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad through Day Coaches, Reclining Chairs (free), and Pullman Sleeping Cars from Chicago via Quincy to Missouri river points. Also through Day Coaches from Toledo and Indianapolis, with Pullman Sleeping Cars from Toledo via Danville, Springfield and Quincy, to Kansas City, Atchison and St. Joseph without change. Families traveling with children will find it greatly to their advantage to take the "Old Reliable" H. & St. Jo. R. R., as no changes or transfers are made.
